It was announced that Jim Schultz, retired Inspector City of Appleton, had passed away from cancer. The hospitality committee will send the groups condolences and a donation will be made to the Wisconsin Cancer Society as per the family's wishes.

Archie Landreman, Technical director for Wood Works Inc will be the speaker for the groups January 8, 2009 meeting. He will present a class on the many uses of engineered wood products in both residential and commercial building projects that inspectors may encounter.

The group was led in prayer by Dave Raymond before they broke for lunch at 12:00 noon. The afternoon meeting was called to order at 12:30PM. President Mike Miller announced the election results as follows:

President : Dennis Jensen

Vice President: Leroy Stublaski

President Mike Miller handed the meeting off to President Elect Dennis Jensen. Dennis thanked the group for their vote. He then announced that the course materials for the Spring 2009 Code Updates have been set. Annual dues for 2009 should be paid as soon as possible to Treasurer Rob Cormier (a form is attached to these minutes). Phil Borchardt and the group thanked Mike Miller for his service as President for 2008. President Dennis Jensen called for a motion to adjoin the meeting. The meeting was then adjourned at 12:45pm.

Respectfully Submitted
Jon Oldenburg
Secretary BIANEW
